Aetheria Academy of Resonance and Weaving

Faculty & Staff Directory

Aetheria Faculty & Staff Directory

The faculty of Aetheria are among the most accomplished Weavers, Alchemists, and researchers in the known dimensions.

THE ADMINISTRATION

HIGH WEAVER: Alaric Vance

- Role: Headmaster of Aetheria.
- Background: Alaric Vance is considered the most powerful Weaver of his generation. He is famous for closing the Great Rift of '99 and discovering the twelve primary uses of crystallized dragon's breath.
- Office: The Zenith Observatory. The password to his gargoyle-guarded staircase changes frequently, often to the name of a rare crystallized sweet (e.g., "Lemon-Drop Geode").
- Quote: "Aether does not pick sides, it merely flows. It is the Weaver who decides its shape."

DEPUTY HIGH WEAVER: Elara Celes

- Role: Deputy Headmistress, Head of the Ignis Quadrant, and Professor of Matter Shifting.
- Background: A strict but deeply fair instructor. She can shift her own form into a phase-cat, a highly rare ability. She oversees the daily discipline of the school.
- Office: First floor corridor.

THE HEADS OF QUADRANTS

HEAD OF UMBRA: Alchemist Vane

- Role: Professor of Alchemy & Elixirs.
- Background: A brilliant, brooding alchemist who demands absolute perfection. His past is shrouded in mystery, and he is rumored to have a deep understanding of the Void, though he strictly teaches sanctioned alchemy.

• Office: The Sub-Levels. Office hours: By appointment only. Do not touch the bubbling stasis-pods in his office.

HEAD OF AERIS: Weaver Flit

• Role: Professor of Kinetics & Infusions.

• Background: A master of delicate, precise kinetic work. He was once a champion Dueling Weaver.

• Office: Seventh floor, floating annex.

HEAD OF TERRA: Botanist Thorne

• Role: Professor of Flora Resonance.

• Background: A cheerful, earth-covered professor who treats her dangerous plants like beloved pets. She is an expert in restorative herbalism.

• Office: The Biospheres, behind the main academy building.

OTHER NOTABLE STAFF

WARDEN: Kaelen

• Role: Caretaker and enforcer of the rules.

• Background: A non-Weaver (Unattuned) who manages the academy's physical maintenance. He harbors a deep suspicion of students. He patrols the corridors at night accompanied by his robotic surveillance hound, Tracker.

• Office: Ground floor. Do not enter unless you want a suspension.

GROUNDSKEEPER: Rubeo

• Role: Caretaker of Aetheric Beasts and Keeper of the Keys.

• Background: A massive, half-giant of a man with a heart of gold and a dangerous affinity for adopting lethal predators. He lives in a cabin on the edge of the Void Wastes.

ARCHIVIST: Vellum

• Role: Head Librarian.

- Background: Fiercely protective of her books. She views students as a necessary evil who pose a constant threat to the integrity of her precious scrolls.

INSTRUCTOR OF DEFENSE: (Currently Vacant)

- Role: Professor of Defense Against Void Anomalies.
- Background: Due to a long-standing curse (or severe statistical anomaly), no professor has managed to hold this post for more than a single academic year. We are currently accepting applications for the upcoming term.
